

Hello,

The current folder contains the source code files corresponding to Figure 4 in the paper.

You need to execute "Generate amplitude image.py" to obtain the amplitude matrices of the RGB three channels corresponding to the original image.